

KENTUCKY LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

The 2005 Kentucky Leadership HOSA Conference was held March 16-19 at the Executive West in Louisville. While many are involved on a statewide basis, the expertise and dedication of HOSA's Executive Council is responsible for the framework of the entire event — thus allowing the adventure to begin. This year's conference hosted 635 students, 67 advisors and numerous guests.

The expertise of many individuals provided an assortment of opportunities for all who attended. An array of secondary and postsecondary folks relayed the significance of HOSA — in terms of how important it is to network from local, regional and national levels; develop leadership skills; gain educational experiences; develop self confidence; develop public speaking skills; provide an opportunity to expand one's personal horizons; provide an opportunity to travel outside Kentucky to see what other states are doing; have an opportunity to earn scholarships; and meet new friends. All point to hard work and dedication in developing each individual through the experience of HOSA — it is considered by many to be a journey as well as an adventure.
