

HOSA 101: Advisor Development Program

Module 1

Persuasive Paper

Name _____ Date _____

E-mail _____ Phone _____

Assignment: Your school principal has decreed that students may not miss school for “club” activities. Teachers have an opportunity to request exceptions to the rule by submitting a written one page argument, requesting an exception to the rule, and the rationale for requesting the exception.

Outstanding Criteria (3 points)	Standard Criteria (2 points)	Substandard Criteria (1 point)	Score
Clearly and respectfully defines the request for exception.	Defines the request for exception.	Request for exception is implied in the document.
Clearly and succinctly describes rationale for requesting an exception.	Adequately describes rationale for requesting an exception.	Somewhat describes rationale for requesting an exception.
Clearly supports request with evidence connected to sound instructional methodology and school goals.	Provides evidence for requesting rationale that is somewhat connected to instructional methodology or school goals.	Includes evidence for requesting rationale that is not clearly connected to instructional methodology or school goals.
Strength or creativity of argument is very persuasive.	Strength or creativity of argument is somewhat persuasive.	Strength or creativity of argument is minimally persuasive.
Construction of paper includes one page, neatly composed, with no spelling or grammatical errors.	Construction of paper includes one page, neatly composed, with fewer than two errors.	Construction of paper may exceed one page and includes fewer than three errors.
TOTAL POINTS 15 possible
Score  Total divided by 5 Perfect score average = 3			